About Financial Risk Manager (FRM®) Certification

The Financial Risk Manager (FRM®) Certification, awarded by GARP, is a globally recognised credential for professionals in market, credit, and operational risk. Recognised in 90+ countries, it is highly valued by leading banks, investment firms, and regulatory bodies. With a network of 90,000+ certified professionals, FRM® holders are sought after for roles in risk analysis, treasury, and financial consulting. The certification consists of two rigorous exams, equipping candidates with advanced risk management and quantitative analysis expertise.

Scope of Financial Risk Manager (FRM®) Certification

The global financial sector is currently valued at around $33.5 trillion. Financial institutions, fintech giants, and asset managers are ramping up investments in risk mitigation, driving an urgent demand for skilled professionals who can navigate uncertainty and safeguard financial stability. With a pass rate of 40-60%, FRM® is rigorous yet achievable. It is more popular among students than working professionals, as it requires less time to complete. With a growing network of 90,000+ certified professionals, FRM® holders secure roles like Risk Analyst, Treasury Manager, and Regulatory Risk Consultant, positioning themselves at the forefront of financial risk management.
